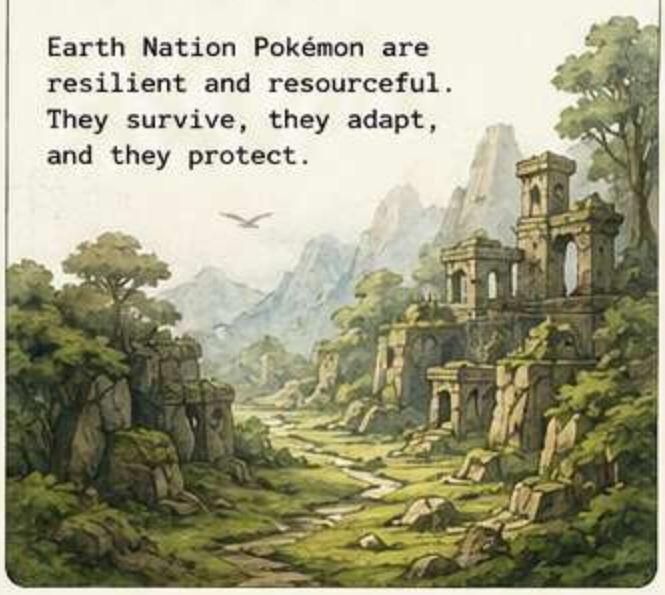
EARTH NATION

THE KINGDOM OF STRENGTH AND SURVIVAL

OVERVIEW

The Earth Nation is the realm of endurance, instinct, and ancient wisdom. Its Pokémon are deeply connected to the land, forests, mountains, and the hidden places of the world. They value loyalty, territory, and the balance of nature above all else.

Earth Nation Pokémon are resilient and resourceful. They survive, they adapt, and they protect.



"We are the roots.
We are the stone.
We are the memory of the Living Kingdom."

WATER NATION

THE KINGDOM OF ADAPTATION AND PEACE

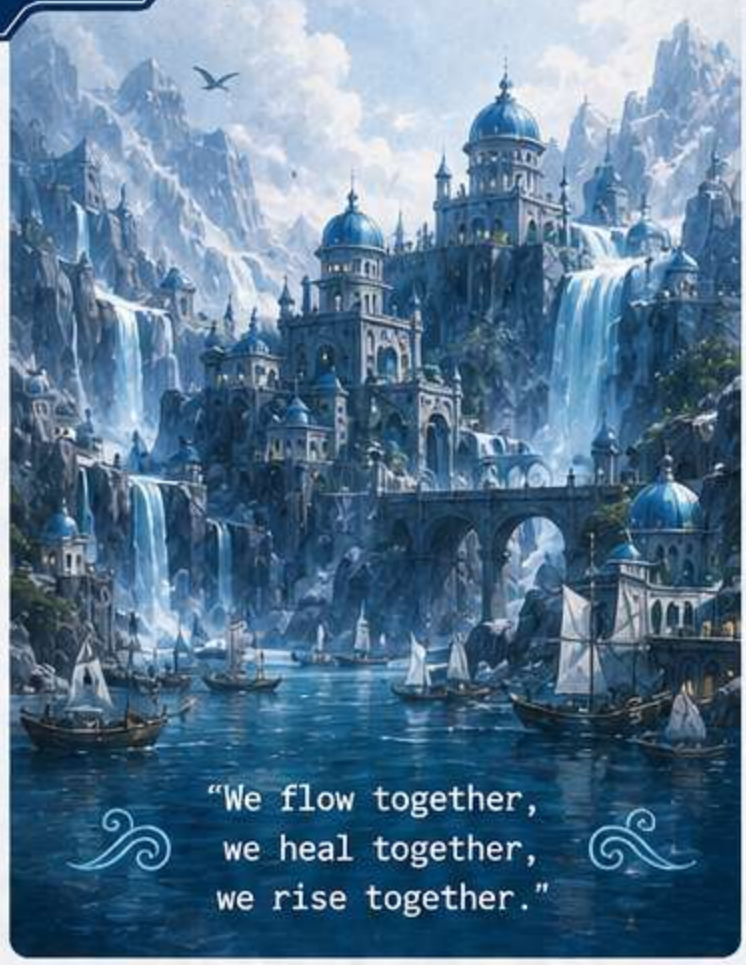
ORIGIN STORY

After the fall of the Kingdom of the Great White Lion, the world was left in sorrow and uncertainty.

United in grief, the animals of the waters came together with one purpose: to build a civilization where every creature could be safe from the dangers and trauma that once shattered the land.

They built cities upon the coastlines and within the ice, dedicated to healing, harmony, and protection.

Though their kingdom is a haven, they know their weakness—indulgence and depth can lead to complacency.



TYPES

WATER

ICE

CORE TRAITS

- Adaptation
- Empathy
- Healing
- Community
- Flow and Endurance

NATIONAL SYMBOL

The waves represent unity, healing, and the endless cycle of life. The deep waters hold the memories of all creatures, protecting them like an endless embrace.

HABITATS

Oceans, seas, lakes, rivers, wetlands, coastal cliffs, frozen tundras, glaciers, and deep trenches. The Water Nation thrives in places of depth, movement, and stillness.

CULTURE

Water Nation creatures value family, community, and emotional bonds above all else. They celebrate healing rituals, storytelling, and art inspired by tides, stars, and the mysteries of the deep.

VALUES

- Protect One Another
- Heal, Don't Harm
- Flow, Don't Resist
- Remember the Fallen
- Peace Through Unity

NATION RELATIONSHIPS

Earth Nation:	Strong Allies
Air Nation:	Respected Friends
Fire Nation:	Cautious Peace

HISTORICAL NOTES

The Water Nation was the second kingdom rebuilt after the fall of the Great White Lion. It became a sanctuary for those seeking refuge, healing, and a new beginning. Its wisdom was passed down through generations like currents.

NOTABLE FIGURES

- Lady Thalassa
  Guardian of the Great Ocean and voice of the tides.
- Elder Narun
  Keeper of memories and healer of deep wounds.

STRENGTHS

Deep compassion, adaptability, resilience, strong bonds, and the ability to heal and protect.

WEAKNESSES

Indulgence, emotional overdependence, avoidance of conflict, and the danger of being consumed by the depths.

TRAINER'S NOTE

Water Nation Pokémon seek Trainers who respect life and lead with kindness. Earn their trust with compassion, and they will protect you as family.

AIR NATION

天空

THE KINGDOM ABOVE THE WORLD

ORIGIN STORY

When the world was torn by conflict, the creatures of the high places rose above.

They chose the path of the wind.

From the highest peaks and endless skies, they observe.

They do not interfere.
They do not belong.

They watch.
They learn.
They remember.

Wisdom in stillness.
Freedom in detachment.

TYPES

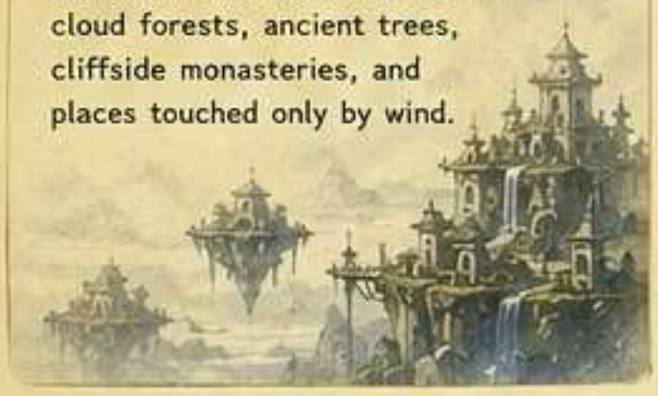
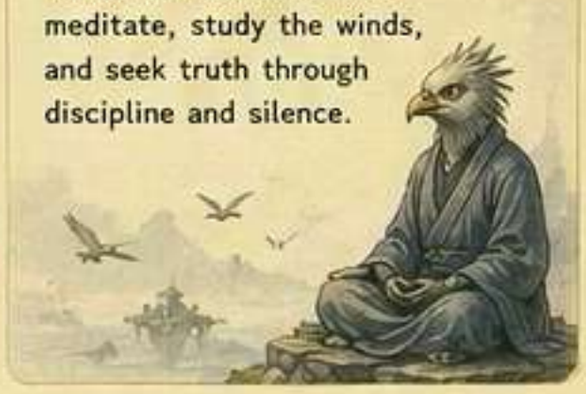
HABITATS

High mountains, floating islands, cloud forests, ancient trees, cliffside monasteries, and places touched only by wind.



CULTURE

Monk-like observers who meditate, study the winds, and seek truth through discipline and silence.



RELATIONSHIPS

Water Nation: Philosophical Rivals

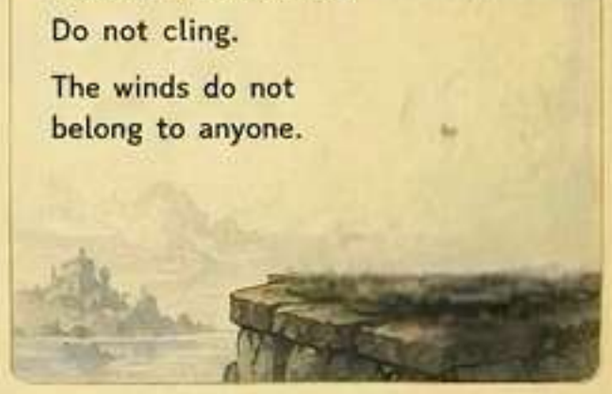
Earth Nation: Neutral Observers

Fire Nation: Distant Watchers

PHILOSOPHY

Observe. Understand.
Do not cling.

The winds do not belong to anyone.



STRENGTHS

- Aerial Mastery
- Keen Senses
- Speed and Agility
- Wisdom and Strategy

FLAWS

Their distance brings wisdom, but also emptiness.

They see much, but feel little.

TRAINER'S NOTE

Air Type Pokémon are rare and often wary of humans. Earn their trust through calmness, respect, and patience. Do not chase what the wind does not wish to be caught.

FIRE NATION

THE KINGDOM OF POWER AND AMBITION

"The weak pray for peace. The strong prepare for survival."

ORIGIN STORY

After the fall of the Great White Lion, the world was left vulnerable.

The creatures of fire rose from the scorched lands and sun-baked savannas. They learned that survival belongs to the strongest.

They forged a nation built on discipline, power, and the will to overcome all odds.

They reject false peace and empty unity.

Only the fittest endure.
Only the superior lead.

TYPES

FIRE ELECTRIC

CORE TRAITS

- Strength
- Discipline
- Competition
- Courage
- Ambition
- Survival of the Fittest

NATIONAL SYMBOL

The flame represents passion, willpower, and the endless drive to surpass limits.
It burns away weakness and forges greatness.

EXAMPLE CREATURES

FIRE TYPE

LION — FIRE
TIGER — FIRE
KOMODO DRAGON — FIRE
KING COBRA — FIRE

HABITATS

Savannas, deserts, red canyons, volcanic fields, and sun-scorched plains. Lands of extremes where only the strong survive.

CULTURE

The Fire Nation values strength, discipline, and honor. Young creatures train from birth, forging body, mind, and spirit through trials of fire and combat.

PHILOSOPHY

Survival of the fittest.
Power is earned, not given.
Weakness invites destruction.
Only through constant growth can a creature protect what it holds dear.

VALUES

- Strength Above All.
- Honor in Victory
- Loyalty to the Pride
- Perseverance
- Never Accept Defeat

NATION RELATIONSHIPS

Water Nation:	Philosophical Opponents
Earth Nation:	Respectful Rivals
Air Nation:	Frustratingly Detached

HISTORICAL NOTES

The Fire Nation united many tribes under the Sun Emperor. From scattered clans, they built a mighty empire through conquest, strategy, and relentless ambition.

NOTABLE FIGURES

- The Sun Emperor
  Founder of the Fire Empire.
- Pyra the Flameheart
  Commander of the Scarlet Legions.
- Talon the Swift
  Legendary falcon and scout of the eastern skies.

FLAW

Pride blinds judgment. The pursuit of superiority can lead to cruelty, arrogance, and endless war. Even fire can consume its own.

STRENGTHS

- Fierce and Determined
- Natural Leaders
- Adaptable in Harsh Environments
- Strong Combat Instincts

WEAKNESSES

- Overconfidence
- Intolerance for Weakness
- Quick to Anger
- Reluctant to Seek Help

TRAINER'S NOTE

Fire Type Pokémon seek Trainers who are confident, ambitious, and willing to push beyond their limits. They respect strength and will not obey those who lack conviction.

THE FOUR NATIONS

THE LIVING KINGDOM POKÉDEX

Long ago, before the world was divided, all creatures lived beneath the Great White Lion — guardian of balance, memory, and the wild harmony of creation.

But after the Fall, the creatures scattered across the world.
From grief, survival, wisdom, and ambition... the Four Nations were born.

EARTH NATION

THE KINGDOM OF STRENGTH AND SURVIVAL

Rooted in forests, mountains, caves, and ancient lands, the Earth Nation values endurance, instinct, loyalty, and the old ways of nature.

Its creatures survive through patience and resilience.

TYPES

GRASS · ROCK · SHADOW

PHILOSOPHY

"Be roots. Be stone. Endure."

STRENGTH IN ENDURANCE. LOYALTY TO THE LAND.

WATER NATION

THE KINGDOM OF ADAPTATION AND PEACE

Born from sorrow after the Fall, the Water Nation seeks healing, unity, and protection for all creatures.

Its creatures flow like rivers and endure like oceans.
Yet their kindness can drift into indulgence and complacency.

TYPES

WATER · ICE

PHILOSOPHY

*"Flow together.
Heal together."*

UNITY IN COMPASSION. STRENGTH IN HARMONY.

THE KINGDOM ABOVE THE WORLD

The Air Nation chose distance over conflict. From mountaintops, cloud forests, and floating sanctuaries, they observe the world in silence.

Wise, detached, and free, they seek clarity through stillness.

Yet in their wisdom lies loneliness.

TYPES

AIR · AIRBORNE GRASS

PHILOSOPHY

"To rise above is to see clearly."

FREEDOM IN DISTANCE. WISDOM IN STILLNESS.

FIRE NATION

THE KINGDOM OF POWER AND AMBITION

Forged in deserts, savannas, red canyons, and scorching lands, the Fire Nation believes survival belongs to the strongest.

Its creatures value discipline, courage, speed, and dominance. But pride can become conquest.

TYPES

FIRE · ELECTRIC

PHILOSOPHY

"To survive is to rise."

POWER THROUGH DISCIPLINE. GLORY THROUGH VICTORY.

THE GREAT WHITE LION

A forgotten guardian whispered about in every Nation.

Some believe the Great White Lion once united all creatures beneath a single Living Kingdom.

Others believe He will one day return to restore balance to the world.

THE CREATURE CODE

DISCOVER
Seek knowledge. Understand every creature and their place in the world.

RESPECT
Every life has value. Treat all creatures with honor and dignity.

PROTECT
Guard the balance. Protect habitats, defend the weak, and preserve life.

*„All creatures belong to the God over the Cosmos."
We are not conquerors of nature — only guardians within it."*
